TUESDAY'S TACTICS.

In the Devon Cup match at Larcompton, Exeter City faced Plymouth Argyle. The match was played in heavy rain, and the conditions were not conducive to good football. Exeter City started strongly and went ahead after 15 minutes through a goal from John Smith. Plymouth Argyle equalized shortly before half-time, but Exeter City regained the lead in the second half through a goal from Peter Brown. Plymouth Argyle had several chances to equalize in the second half, but Exeter City defended well to hold onto their lead. The final score was 2-1 in favor of Exeter City. The Devon Cup is a prestigious tournament and the match was keenly contested. The next round match will be against Barnstaple Town, who beat Torquay United in the previous round.

THE MARKETS.

The markets were generally quiet this week. The prices of many goods remained stable. The most significant change was in the price of potatoes, which increased by 10%. This was due to a poor harvest in the previous season. Other prices remained steady, with the exception of eggs, which decreased by 5% due to lower demand.
